RESOLUTIONS ON FIRST READING

House Concurrent Resolution 72

Representatives Pelath, Dermody, and Klinker introduced House Concurrent Resolution 72:

A CONCURRENT RESOLUTION memorializing Senator Anita Bowser for her many years of outstanding service to the citizens of Indiana and her community in north central Indiana.

Whereas, Senator Anita Bowser was born August 18, 1920, and passed away on March 4, 2007, at the age 86;

Whereas, The daughter of Nicholas and Emilie Albu, Senator Anita Bowser was born in Canton, Ohio;

Whereas, Senator Anita Bowser, formerly Anita Albu, married Russell Bowser and began her fruitful life in Northern Indiana;

Whereas, Senator Anita Bowser was an accomplished scholar, receiving a bachelor's degree from Kent State University, a law degree from McKinley School of Law, a master's degree from Purdue University and a master's degree from the University of Notre Dame;

Whereas, Senator Anita Bowser was a pioneer for women in education, becoming the first female professor at Purdue University in the 1950's when few women held such positions, and was named Outstanding Professor in 1969, teaching political science and constitutional law;

Whereas, Senator Anita Bowser was first elected to the Indiana House of Representatives in 1980 and held the position of Deputy Speaker Pro Tempore, enabling her to become the first woman to act as House Speaker in the history of the State;

Whereas, Senator Anita Bowser was elected to the Indiana State Senate in 1992, where she served as the ranking Democrat on the Pensions and Labor Committee and also served on the Judiciary; Corrections, Criminal & Civil Matters; Ethics; and Education and Career Development Committees;

Whereas, Senator Anita Bowser was appointed to the Child Custody and Support Advisory and the Sentencing Policy Study Committees;

Whereas, Senator Anita Bowser was a member of the National Democratic Platform Committee and the LaPorte County League of Women;

Whereas, Senator Anita Bowser received the Louis Ingelhart Award for Freedom of Expression, the Amnesty International Abolitionist of the Year Award, and the Robert Dale Owen Legislator Award from the Indiana Civil Liberties Union;

Whereas, Senator Anita Bowser was the legislator's foremost constitutional scholar and was often called the "conscience of the Indiana State Senate";

Whereas, Senator Anita Bowser in her first legislative session opposed a requirement that public school text books "teach high moral standards" on the grounds that such language could ban such classics as Huckleberry Finn, standing up for unpopular, but just causes from the very beginning of her tenure as a legislator;

Whereas, Senator Anita Bowser authored successful legislation that prohibits the imposition of the death penalty of mentally handicapped individuals and individuals less than eighteen years of age;

Whereas, Senator Anita Bowser was a staunch defender of the under represented and unprotected, she fought for civil liberties, women's rights, and the rights of all Hoosiers; and

Whereas, Senator Anita Bowser sometimes faced criticism from those who disagreed with her concepts of government, she always kept hold of her principles by maintaining morality and a sense of higher purpose in her personal life; Therefore,

Be it resolved by the House of Representatives of the General Assembly of the State of Indiana, the Senate concurring:

SECTION 1. The Indiana General Assembly honors the invaluable lifetime service and achievements of State Senator Anita Bowser.

SECTION 2. That the Principal Clerk of the House of Representatives is directed to transmit a copy of this resolution to her nephews Thomas Albu and James Albu, her niece Emily Albu, her brother Carl Albu, the University of Purdue-North Central, Baker Woods Enrichment Center, and the LaPorte County Democratic Party.

The resolution was read a first time and adopted by voice vote. The Clerk was directed to inform the Senate of the passage of the resolution. Senate sponsors: Senators Arnold and Heinold.

House Concurrent Resolution 71

Representatives Hinkle and Buck introduced House Concurrent Resolution 71:

A CONCURRENT RESOLUTION honoring Jan Hinkle.

Whereas, Jan Hinkle, a retired Kokomo teacher, is a recent winner of the RTV 6 Leadership Award for her efforts to help the children in the slums of Nairobi, Kenya;

Whereas, Jan Hinkle began the Bright Star School in November 2003 in four rooms that she rented for $13 a month per room;

Whereas, The rooms had dirt floors and were made of used, twisted metal sheets;

Whereas, In February 2004, after suffering a heart attack, Jan Hinkle felt that God was reminding her of her own mortality and that she should put the money God had blessed her with to good use;

Whereas, Jan Hinkle used the money to purchase land in the slums from the Kenyan government, hire a contractor, purchase building materials, and construct a permanent building for the Bright Star School;

Whereas, When completed, the Bright Star School had eight stone classrooms, a bathroom, a girls' dormitory with a bathroom, an office, and living quarters with a bathroom for the school director and his family;

Whereas, With donations from friends, family, and others, construction was completed on a training center, two more classrooms, and a kitchen;

Whereas, In order to protect the orphans who are permanently housed at the Bright Star School, a security wall was rebuilt, four bathrooms were added, and one classroom was converted into a boys' dormitory;

Whereas, Today the Bright Star School is attended by 380 children every day and provides a home for 55 orphans; and

Whereas, Through her strong belief in God and her compassion for those less fortunate than herself, Jan Hinkle has improved the lives of children who had been living in deplorable conditions and has given them hope for a brighter future: Therefore,

Be it resolved by the House of Representatives of the General Assembly of the State of Indiana, the Senate concurring:

SECTION 1. That the Indiana General Assembly recognizes the efforts of Jan Hinkle to improve the lives of children living in desperate situations. Her selflessness has given these children a reason to hope and a way to improve their lives. Jan Hinkle is truly a great Hoosier and an outstanding American.

SECTION 2. That the Principal Clerk of the House of Representatives shall transmit a copy of this resolution to Jan Hinkle.

The resolution was read a first time and adopted by voice vote. The Clerk was directed to inform the Senate of the passage of the resolution. Senate sponsor: Senator Hershman.

House Resolution 48

Representative Burton introduced House Resolution 48:

A HOUSE RESOLUTION honoring Commander Joseph F. Eckerle.

Whereas, Commander Joseph F. Eckerle served with the United States Army's 45th Infantry in Korea and was honorably discharged with a service-connected disability;

Whereas, As Commander of the Disabled American Veterans (DAV) of Indiana, Commander Eckerle has traveled more than 20,000 miles in the past eight months, crisscrossing the state seeing and listening to disabled veterans;

Whereas, Under Commander Eckerle, the DAV of Indiana participated in the winter sports clinic in Colorado and the Veterans' Day Parade;

Whereas, Commander Eckerle spearheaded the DAV of Indiana's homeless meal program and served as a bell ringer on POW-MIA Day;

Whereas, Commander Eckerle has authorized funds for 12 new vans to transport Indiana veterans to the veterans' hospitals;

Whereas, These vans are to be used in Logansport, Greenwood, North Vernon, Crown Point, Anderson, Rochester, Peru, Elkhart, Goshen, Jasper, and Lawrenceburg; and

Whereas, Commander Eckerle has received the Francis Polen Award and was recognized for the 1,750 hours of volunteer services he performed for veterans through active participation in the Veterans Administration voluntary service program: Therefore,

Be it resolved by the House of Representatives of the General Assembly of the State of Indiana:

SECTION 1. That the Indiana House of Representatives thanks Commander Joseph F. Eckerle for his dedication to the veterans of Indiana.

SECTION 2. That the Principal Clerk of the House of Representatives shall transmit a copy of this resolution to Commander Joseph F. Eckerle and Donald Peek, Jr.

The resolution was read a first time and adopted by voice vote.

RESOLUTIONS ON FIRST READING

Senate Concurrent Resolution 56

The Speaker handed down Senate Concurrent Resolution 56, sponsored by Representatives Pelath and Klinker:

A CONCURRENT RESOLUTION Memorializing Senator Anita Bowser for her many years of outstanding service on behalf of the citizens of Indiana and, more particularly, the citizens of north central Indiana.

Whereas, Senator Bowser had a long and highly successful career as a political science professor at Purdue University;

Whereas, Senator Bowser was a respected scholar, having received a bachelor's degree from Kent State University, a law degree from McKinley School of Law, a master's degree from Purdue University and a master's degree from the University of Notre Dame;

Whereas, after retiring as a professor Senator Bowser launched her legislative career by being elected to the House of Representatives in 1980 and subsequently being elected to the first of her four terms in the Senate in 1992;

Whereas, during her career in the legislature she was a passionate defender of civil liberties, a champion of workers' rights and a tireless advocate against the imposition of the death penalty;

Whereas, Senator Bowser successfully authored legislation that precluded the imposition of the death penalty on mentally retarded individuals and on individual less than eighteen years of age;

Whereas, Senator Bowser received numerous awards for her service, including the Louis Ingelhart Award for Freedom of Expression, the Amnesty International Abolitionist of the Year Award, and the Robert Dole Owen Legislator Award from the Civil Liberties Union twice in the fifty year history of the award; and

Whereas, although revered for her intelligence and accomplishments, she will perhaps be most remembered for the kindness and warmth she conveyed to everyone she met: Therefore,

Be it resolved by the Senate of the General Assembly of the State of Indiana, the House of Representatives concurring:

SECTION 1. The Indiana General Assembly honors the lifetime service and achievements of State Senator Anita Bowser.

SECTION 2. The Secretary of the Senate is directed to transmit a copy of this resolution to her nephews Thomas Albu and Jame Albu, her niece Emily Albu, her brother Carl Albu, the University of Purdue–North Central, Baker Woods Enrichment Center, and the LaPorte County Democratic Party.
